A singer/songwriter originally from the Central West of NSW, Michelle Little has been wowing audiences for over 25 years.

In that time she has performed all over Australia and overseas with performances at festivals and venues from the Sydney Opera House to the legendary Bluebird Café in Nashville, USA.

Her tribute to Patsy Cline has been a festival favourite at the Tamworth Country Music festival for 12 years. As a recording artist, Michelle's albums, Hear Me Now and The Songs of Patsy Cline, have reached listeners around the world.

Now based in Sydney, and having spent the past few years focused on her live shows, Michelle is looking forward to releasing a new album in 2021.

New Album coming in 2021

Will include the singles,
"Nice To See You",
"Time"
and

"You Don't Have To Be A Hero"
